

CHARITABLE CHARTER

Santa Fe Woman's Club & Library Association is a 501.c.3. non profit, the Club supports many worthy causes with specific consideration to women and children. Contributions are made to the Santa Fe Public Library and numerous local non profits. Additionally scholarships are awarded each year to deserving and qualified college students.

GOVERNANCE

SFWC is governed by a board of directors composed of elected officers of the club and committee and department chairs. The board provides financial due diligence, activity and fundraising plans.

MEETINGS

General membership meetings are held monthly with the exception of the summer months. Meetings begin with an update on club activities followed by a luncheon and guest speaker. Guests are welcome to attend with prior notice to the attendance chair.

The Monthly board meeting usually precedes the general membership meeting to preview and plan for the following months activities as well as review past events. Club members are welcome to attend the board meetings as a non-voting observer. Ideas and input from any club member may be presented to a board member for discussion at an appropriate time.

Santa Fe Woman's Club & LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

1616 Old Pecos Trail
Santa Fe, NM 87505
505-983-9455

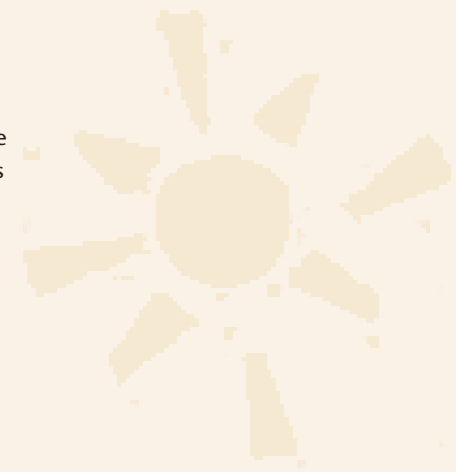

CLUBHOUSE

To further support the SFWC's philanthropic mission, our spacious air-conditioned clubhouse is available for rent to groups and private parties at reasonable rates for one-time and long-term repeated usage. The multi-purpose meeting room (approximately 2300 feet) with adjacent large kitchen is ideal for events such as lectures, business meetings, seminars, fundraising events and family festivities including wedding receptions and baby showers. There is a hardwood dance floor and a piano.

An auditorium seats 150 and is perfect for presentations, musical performances, plays and film screenings. Includes a baby grand piano on stage, two dressing rooms, bathroom and acoustic and lighting. PA system is available for rent.

Plenty of free parking available.

Santa Fe Woman's Club & LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

*“... this community’s
 most enduring,
 most effective,
 most generous,
 most visionary,
 most far-reaching
 and most significant
 civic-minded
 organization.”*

The Santa Woman’s Club & Library Association

formed in 1892, provides civic, educational, philanthropic

The original Santa Fe Public Library
 circa 1896

and library support
 to the city and
 its people.

The current Woman’s Club
 evolved from the Benevolent

Association and Woman’s board of Trade with the purpose of making civic improvements and establishing a library. Over the club’s long history, Santa Fe Woman’s Club was “Guardian of the Plaza”, opened the first library and reading room and maintained the Fairview Cemetery. SFWC was named a Santa Fe Living Treasure” in 2003. Living Treasures called the Club one this community’s most enduring,
 most effective, most generous, most visionary,

most far-reaching and most significant civic-minded organization.”

SFWC welcomes new members
 and invites interested women to visit a meeting,
 tea or activity to learn about the club.

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Date: _____

Name: _____
 (First) (Last) (Middle Initial)

Address: _____
 (Street) (City/State) (Zip)

Phone: Home _____

Work _____

Cell _____

Email: _____

Birth Month and Day: _____

Husband/Partner: _____

How did you learn about the Santa Fe Woman’s Club?

- Archives/yearbook
- Building maintenance
- Computer skills
- Education
- Flea market
- Financial
- Fundraising
- Grant writing
- Library
- Luncheon Newsletter
- Phone calling (monthly)
- Public relations/Marketing

To further our mission
 the Club requests
 that each member
 donates a minimum
 of 10 hours per year
 to Club philanthropic
 and/or support activities.
 Please check where
 you would like to help.

