Many, many thanks to the many people who made the Holiday season a happy success for Club members, friends and families. Special thanks go to: Kathie Enz and her team for the Holiday Home Tour enjoyed by many; Betty Scott and her team for our delicious Holiday luncheon; Dolores Whitaker, Sara Ghizzoni, Marlys White, and Celiane Dunetz for the Silent Auction; Chris Durlak and her Decorating Committee for turning our Clubhouse into a Santa Fe Holiday experience; and to Marc Voltura, our Building Manager, for all his help.

As we say good-bye to 2017, we thank all of the members who supported these and other events in so many ways, and look forward to another successful year in 2018.

Thanks, Chris, for your appreciation of the efforts of members who made December a fun and successful month. Indeed all of last year, our 125th anniversary year, was busy and special. We're fortunate to have history booklets and posters produced for the anniversary celebration. Thank you Dolores (Whitaker) for that. Looking forward to 2018 and our fun fundraising and everyone's continuous participation in the Club.

ART COMMITTEE

Submitted by Nancy Brace & Dolores Whitaker

Nancy Brace will be presenting some of her artistic talents at our January 15th Santa Fe Woman's Club Luncheon. Nancy has been a SFWC member for about a year and a half. She is an oil painter, dyes silk scarves, and makes ladies' hats in the tradition of Downton Abbey. She currently has about 1500 hats in her collection and plans on bringing some of them to our next meeting for sale. See her website at <http://www.nancybrace.com/>

VOLUNTEER Opportunity

Bienvenidos Outreach provides food boxes to 350 families twice a month and sack lunches for 150 or so homeless each week. The program was started in 1989. Since that time Bienvenidos has moved twice into larger commercial buildings. Bienvenidos is need of a couple of volunteers with trucks or vans to do Sunday food pickups once or twice each month at various grocery stores. It is a job for couples and takes about 3 hours starting with Trader Joe's at about 7:15 PM. This 501(c)(3) organization hopes that your club members might know someone with interest in volunteering. See more at <http://www.bienvenidos.org/>. Contact Dudley Hafner at 466-0261 for more information.

SFWC BOOKMARKS

Submitted by Chris Durlak

We need to recruit new members and that is the purpose of the new bookmarks that were introduced at our November luncheon. Now we need to get them into the hands of potential members. Bookmarks will be available at our January meeting and Lou Finley will be speaking to us about their best use.

Annual SILENT AUCTION

by Dolores Whitaker

Wow!! The members of the committee were delighted with the success of our auction. Thank you all for finding a treasure or more for our fundraiser. We had only a few items left which did not sell. We are continuing to show the African Statue to potential retail buyers. We exceeded the amount of the 2016 Auction and will announce the final amount in the January 15th meeting.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Monday, January 8, 6-7:30 PM. Dr. Sunday Eiselt, "Becoming White Clay: Athabaskan Migration and Jicarilla Apache History". Admission $15. Southwest Seminars recommends that you arrive early as this lecture may sell out.
