FROM THE PRESIDENT, Evelyn McClure

We gathered on Monday, October 18 to celebrate the life of our past president, Marlys White. Marlys had made many friends throughout Santa Fe as a member of a book club, dinner group, PEO, the Unitarian Church as well as the Woman's Club. We were fortunate to have her in our midst for as long as we did.

Now, we need to be thinking about 2022: how we will celebrate our 130th anniversary and how we will fill our Board positions. Please consider joining the Board, if you are asked, as we need everyone's participation to continue the long history of this organization. The Woman's Club has done so much good in the Santa Fe community through its existence. Let's keep up that energy.

Board Minutes Recap

There is good news as rentals of the Club have been picking up and we have upgraded the theater with handrails thanks to the hard work of Kandy Frame and Cindy Kane. Many thanks to you both.

We held our annual flea market on Saturday, October 2 and raised about $12,000 (thanks to everyone who organized, worked and provided refreshments). We discussed doing two separate flea market sales in 2022, one in the Spring and one in the Fall.

$1,000 was donated by members to add to our scholarship endowment at the Community College.

Our November meeting will be held at a restaurant. Details to follow. Our December holiday meeting will hopefully be at the Club.

SOLO ART EXHIBIT AT THE SANTA FE MAIN BRANCH LIBRARY

The library is exhibiting the art of our talented member, Kathie Enz beginning November 1, 2021 and running throughout the month of November. Stop in to see her work and support our library.

Welcome to our
New Members

NEWS FROM FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY, Joy LeCuyer

--'Friends of the Library Week' was successful. It resulted in 60 new members and 10 renewals at the three sites where FOL tables were located. Many thanks were voiced to SFWC&LA for the baskets provided for the raffled gifts.

--Book Sales: SFWC&LA member Susan Sheldon reported that "the sidewalk sale" at Southside Branch on Saturday, October 23 netted more than $1000. People are asking for more sales; if the library is unable to offer indoor space, it has been suggested we look for space elsewhere. It can't be too far away since we have to move all boxes of books and maybe even tables. Send suggestions to: books@santafelibraryfriends.org

--Happy Hour with Anne Hillerman was a great success with 65 attendees. Thanks were sent to SFWC&LA for the use of the auditorium.

POET'S CORNER

We are adding a section to share the work of some of our members.
Please enjoy the first two contributions.

Conversations during Lockdown by Trish Foschi

I greet Mr. Badger, Hopi kachina of healing, every morning
And rage at news from talking heads at night,
Scaring the cat.

I talk to myself, a lot now, interrupt myself,
Flit from one thought to another,
Banal and profound,
Revisit happy times, revise awkward moments,
Laugh at my own disorder and cleverness.

I remember the words I repeated to my dying husband,
And say goodnight to Mr. Snowman, rusty junk sculpture in the courtyard.

Rethink your Notion of Female Role Models by Trudy Eiron

(The last word in each line makes up the poem Title)

Think of me. Think of you. Now rethink.
Reverse, jump up and down, turn your vision inside out so that the notion of us isn't as a couple or an 'us' but, of two individuals giving and sharing, a female and a male who don't live by an assigned role,
but, rather, invent new different models.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2021

The Woman's Club hosted a gathering to remember Marlys White and provided a lunch for all the local organizations she belonged to.

VOLUNTEER DRIVERS NEEDED

We Need Your Help!!

Within Santa Fe's growing and vibrant senior community, we have recognized a great need for additional transportation services. We are looking for passionate volunteers like you to help us meet this need and combat the growing problem of social isolation in our senior community. Our Volunteer Drivers will partner with us to provide medical and non-medical rides for ambulatory seniors 60+ years of age who are in financial need and have no other option for transportation. Our volunteers will receive orientation, training, and continued support. Volunteer drivers will use their own vehicle and must provide valid license and proof of insurance at orientation. This opportunity is volunteer directed and will allow you to set your own schedule with 2-4 hour shifts at any point throughout the week.

If you can spare a few hours a week, please reach out!
